Dear Bill:

I hope you will excuse the terrible delay in getting these materials to you. We have been in the midst of several crisis projects in which everyone has been involved, and every day since I returned from Atlanta has been wild. I just hope I haven't caused you too great an inconvenience.

The Constitution, I discovered, I had never retyped in its final form or I would have put it in the mail immediately. Sorry that caused a delay, too! The minutes from Marco Island are also only in draft form.

I know this may not meet all of your needs, but I did want to at least get this in the mail. Let me know what else you need, and I'll hope things have calmed down.

Very sincerely,

Nancy
